

Dear Sirs and Madams:

Please deny the recent petition of the Consumer Bankers Association seeking to water down Indiana's "do not call" list. The federal "do-not-call" list was enacted as a measure to help those in the country in states which had not acted sufficiently to stop the blight of unwanted telephone calls. It was not designed to prevent Indiana from taking more stringent measures to protect its citizens.

Thank you for your consideration

/s/Douglas J. Masson